

the director's rose garden CAPACITY: 35-45

Located less than a block from the Square Corner and the heart of the downtown entertainment district in Frederick, the Federated Charities building was originally a private home and maintains many of its original Victorian era details. The private garden in the rear is dominated by roses and perennials. Guests enter at the front of the building through the original Wickersham gates, walk past our collection of local art and enjoy a secluded brick garden graced with vintage furniture. Perfect for engagement parties and showers.

the holmes d. baker conference room CAPACITY: 12-15

Our conference room is located in the original portion of the building and features a large table with conference phone, a monitor and webcam for video conferencing. The room also has access to a coffee maker and refrigerator. The building is ADA accessible.

rental rates

Our rental rates include an open catering policy, flexible set-up time, additional table availability, and an on-site events coordinator. Any public event may require a Frederick County liquor permit, a certified crowd manager, liability insurance and other jurisdictional permits.
